Recognition of Bryan as the Party's Leader.

HIS NAME STIRS UP ENTHUSIASM

GLIMPSE OF HIS PICTURE CALLS FORTH CHEERS.

Ex-Congressman White Not Afraid of the Future of Democracy—All True Reformers Had Much to Contend With at First—No Great Revolution Was Accomplished in a Day.

Des Moines, Ia., June 23.—About 1,000 delegates were present when State Chairman M. F. Henley called the Democratic state convention to order today. The attendance of visitors was small.

The announcement that ex-Congressman Fred B. White, of Keokuk, the leading candidate for governor, would preside as chairman was greeted with cheers. A large picture of W. J. Bryan was unveiled at the rear of the stage. Three cheers were given for Bryan and then Mr. White made an address. He said in part:

"None but veritable demagogues and reckless persons will dissent from the statement that the conditions throughout the country are not only unsatisfactory but deplorable, not only deplorable but actually alarming, and becoming more alarming with the lapse of each succeeding day. These conditions are such that they are destined to make perpetual for a certain class of people who are the dispossessed, the underprivileged, and the comparatively few in number, are powerful in their influence.

Salt Lake City has paid its homage to old age and is better for it. Another year will go by before the next gathering of the old folks, and by that time many who have enjoyed the entertainment in a most interesting manner, but step is very unsteady, and she cannot walk without assistance. She has not been away from her home for a year until the last two days, and none of the old folks have enjoyed this outing more than she has. She is an American and was born in Massachusetts, and came here with the first of the pioneers 50 years ago. She is proud of her white ribbon and proud of her birth. She talked for a long time to a Herald reporter yesterday, and related many interesting reminiscences. Among other things she told of the time that she removed her shoes and sat on the ground across a river on her journey over the desert. She did it on a basket from Brigham Young, and was the first woman to cross the river. When she reached the opposite bank she waved her hand in triumph to Brigham Young and several others high in authority, who stood on the other side of the river laughing at her. The old lady became tired from sitting so long, and asked The Herald reporter to take her for a little walk, and he gladly accepted the honor thus offered him, and when he placed her in her seat again she admonished him not to let the little affair of the promenade be known in his domestic circles, as it might cause some jealousy. The peaceful old age of Mother Strang enjoys was shown in a conversation which she had with a group of inter-

BLOODY MELEE

HEADS THUMPED AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO.

Row Among Students Supposed to be Gentlemen.

Chicago, June 23.—A bloody melee on the battlements of Bryson Physical laboratory, in which heads were thumped and backs belabored, put an abrupt end to the senior class exercises at the University of Chicago.

It was senior day and when the flag of that class was hung to the breeze it was a signal for several hard battles between its defenders and a small army of under class men.

The flag was saved from capture, but the face of President James Scott Brown of the senior class was badly lacerated in the conflict and Harry Coy was injured. The two worlds of the lower and upper classes had clashed at the Bryson tower, and picked up at the bottom with a dislocated shoulder. Many other students were more or less injured.

An investigation of the fight is to be made by the university authorities and students believe that it may result in the expulsion of some of the leaders in the conflict.

DEBS' SCHEME

Governor of Washington Not At All Afraid of It.

Tacoma, Wash., June 23.—Governor Rogers stated, in reply to a question regarding the Debs' colony, that the laws of the state would be maintained and would not be revolutionized by anybody or any set of men. He did not believe that the world of the lower and upper classes had clashed at the Bryson tower, and picked up at the bottom with a dislocated shoulder. Many other students were more or less injured.

AN OLD FOLKS GROUP.

ment of the last two days will have passed away. Yesterday was set apart for the grand rally of the old people at Garfield Beach, and it was a day of enjoyment to them all. Most of those who came from places outside of this city returned to their homes last evening, weary, perhaps, from the excitement of the last two days, but all of them happy. It has been many a day since Garfield Beach had as many visitors as yesterday. No matter where one went, the main waiting room and balconies at the station, the dining pavilion opposite, there was a sea of old people. The most of them were women. They were in charge of the superintendent, Mrs. Jennie B. McKim, who had a number of them with her. They were in charge of the superintendent, Mrs. Jennie B. McKim, who had a number of them with her. AN OSTRICH FARM

Salt Lake is to Have a New Industry.

EDWIN CAWSTON OF CALIFORNIA WILL ESTABLISH IT.

His Agent Now in the City and Has Secured a Tract of Land for the Purpose—Will Probably Ship in a Carload of the Big Birds Before the Jubilee.

Utah will soon have an entirely new and surprisingly novel industry. It will be nothing less than an ostrich farm and will be established by Edwin Cawston, proprietor of the Norwalk farm in southern California, located midway between Los Angeles and Pasadena. Mr. Cawston has been negotiating to this end for some time, and after giving the matter of climate and other considerations attention, has concluded to carry out the plan. He is so favorably impressed with Salt Lake that he has moved to the city here to look over the ground and select a location. It will require 30 acres for the purpose, and Mr. Cawston has selected a location between the city and Port Dunes, which answers all requirements. Within a few days Salt Lake will then have one ostrich farm.

The jubilee commission learned of Mr. Cawston's plans and have requested him to send a herd of ostriches to the city for exhibition during the jubilee. The commission, which Mr. Cawston has secured, is a large number of ostriches and has no doubt but that the request will be granted. After the jubilee the ostriches will be moved to the farm, which will be their permanent home.

In the United States the only ostrich farm is a complete success, the sale of the feathers being very profitable. The ostriches are raised in large numbers. They are raised in large numbers. They are raised in large numbers. They are raised in large numbers.

HAWAIIAN TREATY UNDER DISCUSSION

Principal Theme Before the Senate Committee.

READ AND REFERRED TO A SUB-COMMITTEE.

PROTEST FROM JAPAN CAUSES APPREHENSION.

Protest is in Such Definite Terms and is Directed so Squarely at the Transaction as to Cause the Senate to Believe That Extreme Care Must be Used in Handling it.

—Little Men are Evidently Combative.

Washington, June 23.—The Hawaiian annexation treaty formed the principal topic of consideration by the senate committee on foreign relations at its brief session today. The treaty and accompanying papers were read and referred to a sub-committee, consisting of Senators Foraker, Davis and Morgan, with instructions to investigate the entire question and report to the full committee.

The papers read included the protest made by Japan against the annexation. The document did not call out much comment, but all that was said was of a character to indicate that the members of the committee did not regard it likely to lead to serious complications, though requiring the most respectful consideration. The sub-committee will consider all the communications likely to grow out of annexation, including those referring to the trade relations of the island. This will involve the study of all Hawaiian treaties with other countries. The inquiry will require considerable time, and no effort will be made by the full committee to take up the treaty until the sub-committee shall be able to report on all the details. The realization of this fact has led the members of the committee to conclude that it is improbable that the committee as a whole will be able to pass upon the subject during the present session. The committee will be established by Mr. Martineau's decision is that disbursements cannot be made until the treaty is ratified.

Father Hart of this city, presiding judge of the court which last year decided the Bonanza muddle, has been arrested charged with murdering her husband, Pickett, in Moody county, Sunday, about three years ago. Pickett died in a child's house and carried considerable life insurance. It is now claimed that Mrs. Pickett started the fire in the child's house and murdered her husband. She has since married Gittel and they recently came to Leroy from Chester, Ia.

Panchofote is Wise.

New York, June 23.—Sir Julian Pauncefote sailed for London today. When questioned as to Hawaii, he said to a reporter: "My hands and my conscience are clean. I am a British subject and my business is to represent England and America are not likely to quarrel over the matter and it is my profound hope they will never quarrel over any other."
